CONSISTING OF
PORT, SHERRY, ANGELICA, MUSCATEL AND CATAWBA.

$1.00 Per Gallon. 25c. Per Bottle

These Wines are made in the Napa Valley, are of the best quality and received by us direct. We are the first house that placed the price within the reach of those of moderate means. There is much new and low-grade California wine on this market that does no credit to that State.

We believe ours to be the best that can be obtained. A trial is solicited.

MORE OF JUNE'S WEDDINGS

HAPPY SOCIETY EVENTS IN PRO-FUSION.

Potter-Sperry Wedding To-day-Hosley-McDowell Wedding-The Barnes-Hosley Wedding To-night-Off for Europe-A New Haven Lady-Yale Tutor's Wedding-Many Other Personal Items.

The Sperry-Potter wedding takes place this noon at St. John's Episcopal church. The bride-elect, Miss Potter of Cedar Hill, will be attired in a traveling dress. The groom is a son of Mr. Potter of Sperry of Bradley street, and all the parties are highly esteemed, and have many friends. The happy couple will take a wedding tour of some duration.

The wedding of Miss Bessie Bruner McDowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. McDowell of Clark street and Frank Henry Hosley, assistant paymaster of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, will take place in the Humphrey street Congregational church to-morrow evening, June 13, at 7 o'clock. The Rev. F. R. Luckey, pastor of the church, will perform the ceremony. There will be four bridesmaids. The bride, a very pretty young lady, will be attired in white satin. The church choir, as the bridal party enters, will sing the wedding march from Lohengrin. Mr. and Mrs. Hosley are to make an extended tour. Among the places at which they will sojourn is Lambertville, N. J., where coincidentally they will attend the golden wedding of Miss McDowell's grandfather, Richard McDowell, master mechanic of the Pennsylvania railroad. Other points of interest to be visited include Washington, Niagara Falls and Boston. The happy couple will reside at the shore for the summer, and in the fall will reside on Howard avenue.

Miss Helen Cheney of Fair Haven Heights has returned to the city after a six months' sojourn in Boston.

Leonard T. Waldron, a graduate of the Yale law school of the class of '90, and whose home is in Knoxville, Tenn., is spending a few days in town.

Miss Mamie A. Hart of Shelton street, this city, will be married in St. Francis' church Tuesday, June 25, to Dr. Richard Raymond of Worcester, Mass.

Mrs. Edith M. Bixby, wife of Patrolman Bixby, who has been taking a teachers' course in the Cleveland school and college of music in Cleveland, O., will return home July 1.

Otto Marx of this city, a graduate of the New York college of pharmacy, has purchased of L. A. Elliot the drug store located at 491 Chapel street.

Mr. Jerry Kehane of New Haven is spending the summer in New York.

Mrs. Philo S. Bennett, with a party, will sail for Europe on the White Star line June 12.

Major Gliddings of the Signal corps has appointed Lieutenant James B. Wheeler, second section, adjutant of the corps, vice Lieutenant A. A. Beach, third section, who has become senior lieutenant.

Word comes from Mrs. Hoadley B. Ives from southern Europe in which she tells of her experience in Florence during the recent earthquake. While in Florence Miss Ives occupied apartments in the Niccolini Palace. The ceiling and walls of the room she occupied were badly cracked.

Dr. J. Waldo Jewett of this city has just been appointed assistant surgeon at the New York Ophthalmic hospital. Dr. Jewett is a graduate of this institution. Dr. Jewett has devoted his attention particularly to these branches and has met with marked success.

Wilbert G. Johnson of New Britain will be married to Miss Carrie Green, wood of this city today at the residence of Rev. Dr. Brown on Howe street. After a short journey they will reside in New Britain and will be at home after July 1 at 134 Chestnut street.

The Barnes-Hosmer wedding ceremony takes place this evening at the Church of the Redeemer at 6 o'clock. It will be a brilliant event.

Mrs. Wallace Case of Barkhamsted is spending a week in New Haven.

Mrs. A. A. Stevens and son and Mrs. F. E. Burr and daughters, all of Bristol, came to Morris Cove Saturday, where they are occupying the Morris cottage.

James Husted of Peekskill, son of the late ex-Speaker James W. Husted, and Miss Louise Spaulding, daughter of Representative J. E. Spaulding of Winsted, will be married in the Episcopal church in Winsted this afternoon.

Michael Mitchell and Miss Maria Wheeler will be married in the Roman Catholic church in Winsted at 9 o'clock this morning.

Tutor Arthur L. Wheeler of Yale, salutatorian of the class of '93, is to be married on Thursday of next week to Miss May L. Waters, the daughter of Mrs. Horace Waters of Hartford. Mr. Wheeler is the son of the late William R. Wheeler, the artist. He is a graduate of the Hartford high school and was appointed tutor in Latin at Yale at the last meeting of the Yale corporation.

Miss M. A. Howe has resigned from the Hartford high school to accept a responsible position in Mrs. Porter's well known school for girls at Farmington. Miss Howe taught in the West Middle school for three years and after that went to the high school, where she has been teaching for sixteen years. Since 1883, for the past twelve years, she has had entire charge of the French department, and she has long been the most popular and one of the most successful instructors in the school.

Elbe Inquiry Ended.
London, June 11.—The inquiry instituted by the board of trade into the circumstances of the loss of the North German Lloyd steamship Elbe by coming into collision with the British steamer Crathie has been concluded, and judgment will be rendered on Monday.

ENTERTAINMENTS.
Grand Opera House.
As the large audience came out of the opera house last evening the expression was heard on all sides how the cool the house was and what a delightful place to pass a few hours and listen to a beautiful opera well sung.

The opera presented last night was "Said Pasha," and that it was well presented goes without saying, as this opera company has already made a good impression on the audiences present during the week.

The company is well made up and includes a number of well known singers, among whom are James Donnelly, J. W. Gurville, Miss Ethel Vincent and others. The work of the chorus is also deserving of special mention. "Said Pasha" will be repeated this afternoon, and "The Chimes of Normandy" will be given this and to-morrow evenings.

The opera house is well ventilated, and it is now a very pleasant place to pass an afternoon or evening in. Manager Hunsell has also placed the prices within reach of all—matinees 10 cents and 20 cents; in the evening reserved seats 30 cents and 50 cents.

Poll's Wonderland Theater.
Large audiences were delighted at Wonderland yesterday. Miss Huth and Mr. Clifford again created a sensation with their plantation melodies, and a colored individual in the gallery became so excited during one of the refrains that he began to shout hysterically until he was quieted by the officer on duty there. It would be hard to blame the colored man, however, for the artists sing so well as to move the hearts of their listeners. Lydia Dreams interests everyone also with a wonderful exhibition of polyphonism, and a guessing match is started at every performance as to the sex of the artist. Mr. Poll has been appealed to at least fifty times during the last two days to settle the question whether Lydia Dreams is a man or a woman.

William A. Mason and Sherry Healey, Miss Nellie Seymour, Mr. Bruce and Miss Rogers, John T. Tierney, the Quigley brothers, and Eddie Magee and Miss Grace Langley are all clever entertainers.

FIRST HEAVY ARTILLERY.
Arrangements Completed for To-day's Reunion in Hartford—Brilliant List of Speakers.
Hartford, June 11.—The arrangements are completed for the reunion of the First Connecticut Heavy Artillery, which will take place in this city to-morrow, June 12.

The business meeting of the association will be held at Grand Army hall in the Cheney building at 10 a. m. Probably Colonel Abbott will preside. At 12:30 the veterans will be escorted to the First regiment armory by the Veterans City Guard. At the armory a collation will be served to the veterans and their families and to the escort, by the ladies of Nathaniel Lyon and Robert O. Tyler relief corps.

At 2 o'clock the line will be formed the armory, and proceed to Foot Guard hall, the line of march being up Elm street to Trinity, and thence through Trinity, Ford and High streets, to Foot Guard hall, where the exercises of the afternoon will be held. The public are invited to attend the afternoon exercises, which will begin at 2:35 p. m.

The following is the program for the afternoon exercises:
Music, Colli's band; singing by quartet; prayer by the Rev. J. H. Twichell; welcome on behalf of the city, Mayor Leavitt; Brainerd, chairman of reception committee; welcome on behalf of Veterans association of the Hartford City Guard, General H. C. Dwight; welcome on behalf of active company of Hartford City Guard, Captain George B. Newton; response on behalf of the association, Major William F. Osborne; song, Edward J. Lloyd; greeting to regiment, Sarah E. Bunnell, daughter of Thomas Bunnell of Company G; singing by quartet; address, the Rev. George Williamson Smith, D. D., president of Trinity college; recitation, "Whispering Bill," Miss Grace Louise Hastings; song, Edward J. Lloyd; address, His Excellency Governor Coffin; address, General Henry L. Abbott; recitation, "Aunt Melrose on Boys," Miss Christine L. Nelson; music, Colli's band; addresses, Lieutenant Governor Cooke, General J. R. Hawley, the Hon. Morgan G. Buckley, the Hon. Nathaniel Shipman, the Hon. H. C. Robinson, the Hon. William Waldo Hyde, members of the regiment, and others will follow, interspersed with music; closing with "America."

NOTICE.
All persons interested will take notice that a public hearing will be held at the office of the Board of Selectmen, Room 2, City Hall, on Friday evening, June 14th, at 8 o'clock, to consider the petition of the New Haven and North Haven Street Railways, created of pole, etc., in North Quinnipiac street, and the main road to North Haven from Davenport avenue north to the town boundary line.

Dated at New Haven, this 11th day of June, A. D. 1895.
